IN MEMORY
In memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Allie Meady Jane Gowin, who departed this life one year ago, Aug. 8th., 1955.
In our hearts we would like to stray along the road of yesterday, To hear you laugh, to see you smile,
To talk with you a little while.
We would like to linger along the way,
That would lead us back to yesterday.
For treasured thoughts of you, mom So dear, ofter bring a silent tear, As time and memory both shall last, From our hearts she will never pass. Until memory fades and life departs,
Mom will live forever in our hearts.
Loved and missed by Her Children.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving remembrance of my dear uncle, Arthur C. Cyrus, who passed away one year ago, Aug. 4, 1955.
Of a loved one gone to rest;
They say time heals all sorrows,
And helps us to forget.
But time so far has only proven,
How much we miss you yet.
God gave us strength to fight it,
And courage to bear the blow;
But what it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know.
—Sadly missed by Mr. A. R. Cyrus & Family.

FARM NEWS

By J. A. Smith, County Agent

4-H MEETINGS

On Monday, August 13, a swine fitting and showing demonstration will be held on the farm of Kinckle Martin, Pamplin. Mr. Roie Godsey, Swine Specialist, VPI, will be with us to conduct the demonstration. All 4-H Club members carrying a swine project have been invited to attend. We plan to leave the county agent's office by 9:00 A. M., picking up Pamplin 4-H members at St. John's store.

On Wednesday, August 15, the Dairy Specialist from VPI will assist with a Dairy fitting and showing demonstration to be held on the farm of Jimmy Payne in Farmville, Va. All members carrying dairy projects are invited to attend. We will leave the county agent's office at 9:00 A. M. in order that we may get to Payne's by 10:00 A. M. Members are asked to bring picnic lunch.

Officers of the 4-H County Council and 4-H Honor Club members are asked to meet at the county agent's office at 7:30 P. M. Monday August 13, to discuss plans for entering an exhibit in the Atlantic Rural Exposition.

4-H Electric Project "members are asked to meet at the county agent's office on Monday, August 13, at 1:00 P. M., to discuss placing an exhibit from Appomattox County in the 4-H Electric Congress to be held in Richmond on August 29-31.

Bacterial Wilt

Several cases of Bacterial Wilt have occurred both on tomatoes and corn in the county. It also affects potatoes, peppers, eggplants in the garden, as well as peanuts and soybeans under field conditions.

Symptoms are rapid wilting and death of the plant without any yellowing or spotting of the leaves. If the stem is cut across near the surface of the soil, the pith shows a darkened, water-soaked appearance and a grayish, slimy exudate may be noted when the stem is pressed. In the later stage the pith may show extensive hollowing.

Control is difficult. Do not plant susceptible crops in the area that is affected with disease for at least 4 to 5 years. A good practice to follow is to rotate vegetables in the garden.

Peach Tree Borer

It is important to treat all peach trees, both young and old, at this time to control the peach tree borer. Wet the entire trunk of the trees to a height of 16 inches with 8 pounds of 50% wettable DDT powder in 100 gallons of water. Apply enough spray so that there will be a good coating of the spray at the base of the trunk.

Damage From MH - 30

Farmers in some areas of the state have reported damage from the use of MH-30 to control suckers on tobacco.

This damage is the result of one of several things: (1) spray applied in large droplets rather than in a fine mist; (2) spray applied during the heat of the day when the tobacco is wilted; (3) excessive amounts of MH-30 used; (4) failure to use sufficient amount of water in the mixture.

Farmers who are interested in using this material for the first time should treat small portions of the field in order that they might learn how to apply the material properly.

Slime Mold

Frequent showers have aggravated mold conditions in lawns which show up first as white splotches on the lawn. The splotches are sometimes only 4 to 8 inches in diameter, scattered on a part of the lawn, giving an outward appearance of white paint that has scattered around. Later, this turns dark brown and when disturbed, dark smutty spores shoot out in the air.

The fungus causing this grows on decaying vegetation in the soil. During periods of high humidity the fungus will work up through the soil along the stems and leaves in large or other wet locations. The fungus is not parasitic and does not damage other than sometimes smothering the leaves. If there is an exceptionally heavy covering of mold on the grass it may give a brown appearance. Control measures for slime molds are not advised, since the slime will disappear during normal dry weather.

LES LIKE TRAFFIC LIGHT

Chattanooga, Tenn.- A swarm of bees, estimated at from 8,000 to 10,000, landed atop a traffic light and sent pedestrians scurrying. An amateur beekeeper, Lester McGhee, cleared up the jam by using a box and ladder from a nearby store and coaxed the bees and her followers into a makeshift hive. McGhee then transferred the swarm to a hive at his home.

MODERN DIVINING ROD

New York- A modern version of the old method of finding water by the use of a forked stick, a divining rod has been developed by an Egyptian scientists at Cairo University. He detects water by emitting a radio wave through the ground. Part of the wave is sent above the surface, while the other part goes down through the ground until it strikes water, which reflects it back to the surface.

7 APPENDECTOMIES

Northridge, Calif.- Within three days, six members of the Mrs. Loveless family underwent appendectomies. Loveless, 34, a policeman, followed five of his six daughters who have had appendix removed this year. Only Francine, 3, still has her appendix.

HEARTLESS ROBBERS

Oklahoma City, Okla.- The robbers who accosted a local businessman recently didn't leave him penniless, but they left him heartless, feeling. They took the man's billfold, wristwatch, and diamond ring. Not satisfied, they also took his shoes, commenting, "They look mighty fine."

Good For Lunch

Take small tomatoes and hollow them out. Combine small amount of chopped cooked eggs, and diced cucumber mixed with a tart mayonnaise. Fill tomatoes with this mixture and serve chilled in lettuce cups.

SAVED FROM CRASH

Union, S. C.- John Brady was thrown through the windshield of his brand new car crashed into a railroad bank. Brady suffered only slight bruises, although he was stripped of most of his clothing. His car was a total wreck.

The grandchildren who attended were Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan and Miss Maurine McCormick, of Spout Spring; Mr. and Mrs. Irving McCormick, Miss Mc-Cormick, Misses Barbara Ann and Wanda Kaye Carter, of Appomattox; Mr. and Mrs. Terry Garrette, Bonnie Lou and Linda Sue Williams, Dennis and Clinton McCormick, Brenda Lee and Rocky McCormick and Calvin Jr. McCormick, of Lynchburg; and Mr. and Mrs. Terry Ferguson, of Stanford, Florida.

The great grandchildren who attended were Joe Vaughan, of Spout Spring; Stevie Ferguson, of Stanford, Florida; Timmy Garrette, of Lynchburg, and Tim McCormick, of Appomattox.

Honored guests of the day were Mr. and Mrs. Willie McCormick, of Appomattox, Mr. McCormick being the only brother of the late Lewis McCormick, Sr.

The family reunion is planned to be held next year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McCormick, Jr., of Oakville.

ONE WAY TO DO IT

Renews, Nfld.- After digging a hole 18 feet deep, trying to get water, a man here got disgusted and left. Returning to fill in the hole, he found his brother's horse staring up at him unhappily. Faced with the problem of getting the horse out of the well, the two men came upon a happy thought. They slowly dumped clay into the hole and the horse cooperated by stomping it down. When the hole was filled, the horse was on top of the heap and casually strolled away.

HOG HOGS ROAD

Needham, Mass.- It was a four-footed hog that hogged the highway, causing an hour-long traffic snarl recently. A 250-pound pig escaped from a truck on Route 128 and its erratic amblings along the highway slowed traffic to a snail's pace until a crane-equipped truck arrived to hoist the porker back into captivity.

NEWS from HOLLYWOOD

Ginger Rogers would like to play in the Adela Rogers St. John story which Bill Dozier recently bought—"Sex and Miss McAdoo." The story is about a school teacher whose students are mostly jockeys.

Betty Hutton is working in Holly wood for the first time in four years -- co-starring with Dana Andrews in "Spring Reunion." She's getting $100,000, plus twenty per cent of the gross, which isn't bad at all.

The latest thrill of the teen-age set is Pat Wayne, 6-foot son of John Wayne, the movies' No. 1 money-maker. While Pat has appeared in only a handful of pictures he is running prominently in fan magazine popularity polls.

Metro paid Rocky Graziano $240,000 for his life story, which appears on the screen under the title, "Somebody Up There Likes Me." It is a first-rate entertainment, a brawling tale of struggle and conflict, expertly played, cleanly directed, and splendidly photographed.

Van Johnson, who so far has avoided TV, now wants three other stars to join him in forming a TV production firm. The four would star in three or four pictures each season, with guest stars doing the rest.

John Wayne and Dan Dailey will co-star in "Wings of the Eagles," for Metro, with John Ford directing. The picture will be made in Santiago, Cuba, and Pensacola, Florida, with the full cooperation of the U. S. Navy.

Between acting assignments Taina Elg, Metro's beautiful ballerina, takes a daily dancing lesson, singing lessons three times weekly, and studies drama and English. She keeps so busy she has no time for homesickness.

Victor Mature, back in Hollywood briefly, after two years of making pictures all around the world, will go to Paris in August for an international police story, "Interpol." He has another picture scheduled for Australia later on, entitled, "Broad Arrow."
